

LAHISCH

1961

L. Williams

The 1961 Clahischo staff has tried to condense
the memories of this school year into book form.
Within this book time ceases to move and for you,
the 1960-61 school year will always remain just a page away.

Dedication

We, the '61 Clahischo Staff, dedicate this volume to Mr. Melvin Woodard.

Dedication

Everyone has someone whom they admire--and the 1961 annual staff is no exception. Since we entered high school as awestruck freshmen, Mr. Woodard has tried to teach us not only math, algebra, and geometry, but also patience, understanding, integrity, and tolerance. Perhaps he was not aware that he was teaching these last four lessons, nevertheless, he taught them.

There is no way we can really repay him for what he has done for us and meant to us, but we hope to show our appreciation in this way.

The 1961 Clahischo staff proudly dedicates Volume XIV to Mr. Melvin Woodard and hopes that he will never forget the Class of '61.

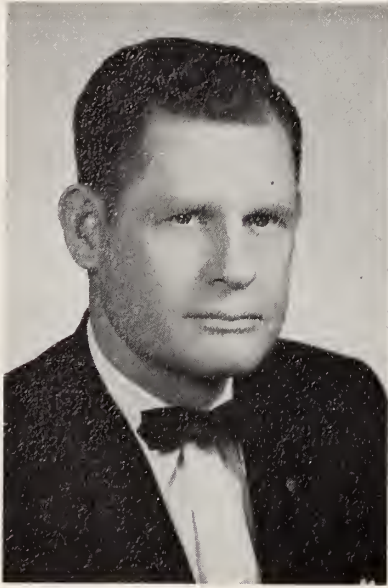

Clayton School Committee

An efficient secretary as well as a charming person, Mrs. Sorrell has helped make our last year an enjoyable one.

Mr. Nixon, while busy coaching basketball, baseball, and football, still takes the time to help students who have problems. His aim is to promote first class athletics, sportsmanship, and students. He is respected by students for both his teaching and coaching abilities. He helped the Class of '61 in our Junior year as our sponsor. To us he typifies the qualities which are found in all good teachers, coaches, and friends.

In his first year of coaching, Mr. Wiggins has worked many hours with the boys' basketball team. He has not only developed their abilities as players but has helped them to become better citizens. It is not often that a school the size of Clayton can afford to have a coach of the calibre of Mr. Wiggins. The boys on the team as well as the student body thank Mr. Wiggins for his help and wish him much success in many more years of coaching.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1961, in the town of Clayton, the county of Johnston, and the state of North Carolina, being in good mental condition as usual, and in much better temper than usual, do hereby make this our last will and testament, rendering void and of no avail any former will or wills that may have been previously made by us in a period of temporary optimism.

We have no specific directions to leave concerning our funeral, but we do hope you will come prepared to praise as well as bury us, forgetting the trifling faults that may have been ours and remembering only our manifold and remarkable virtues.

ARTICLE I -- We freely bequeath to the Junior Class, our rightful heirs, our most valuable properties. We leave our self-satisfaction, our importance, and our wisdom, all of which we possess in enormous quantities. We also leave to the Junior Class our good luck. It made us what we are today, and it should satisfy them. In addition to this, all our privileges and rights as seniors in classroom, chapel, and lunchroom, we gladly give to them.

ARTICLE II -- To our good friends, the Sophomore Class, we leave our patience. It will be the only means by which they can endure the Juniors.

ARTICLE III -- To the young and sophisticated Freshmen, we leave a map of Clayton High School, so they will not get lost and roam about in everybody's way. We also bequeath our latest book to them, HOW TO BLUFF THE TEACHERS, which we have completed after four years of hard work.

ARTICLE IV -- To our dear, beloved principal we give a sense of relief that we are at last leaving. We leave to him all the pleasant memories of our four years together, and a feeling of pride in any great deeds that our future may hold because we owe much to his counsel and example.

ARTICLE V -- To our teachers, the faculty of C. H. S., we hereby give, free from all inheritance, luxury, and income tax, our entire store of knowledge. From them it came and to them it should be returned, that others may be benefited by it as we have been.

ARTICLE VI -- Last, but not least, we leave our personal belongings:

- I, Nancy Jo Avery, bequeath my seat and many good times in fifth period study hall to Carolyn Allen.
- I, Sandra Bridges, leave my "Southern Belle" hairstyle to Ann Lee.
- I, Marie Coates, leave to Gwen Wilkins my ability to blush anywhere at anytime.
- I, Geraldine Davis, leave my ability to drive carefully at all times to Alice Creech.
- I, CeCelia Dixon, leave to Johnny my love for sports.
- I, Mary Joyce Ellis, leave my friendly smile for everyone to Delayne Wall.
- I, Betty Gower Garvey, leave my thundering voice to Linda Johnson.
- I, Judy Lee, leave my position as co-captain on the basketball team to Linda Coates.
- I, Linda Jones, leave my ability to keep the typewriter in one piece to Sudie Ellis.
- I, Judy Morgan, leave my good times at C. H. S. to Brooks Rasor.
- I, Nancy Parrish, leave my ability in bookkeeping to Percy Adams.
- I, Glenda Peedin, leave my "shared desk" in the Senior Class to Linwood Benson.
- I, Evelyn Pearce, leave my ability to like many but love one to Louise Renfrow.
- I, Annette Pender, leave my position of co-art editor of the annual staff to Jimmy Strickland.

Last Will and Testament

- I, Ann Pulley, leave my ability to play basketball and become a star in one year to Gayle Gurley.
- I, Jackie Smith, leave my typewriter to Dennis Johnson in hopes that it will bring him some speed.
- I, Lacelle Stanley, leave my ability to wait to Pattie Sue Stephenson.
- I, Virginia Stephens, leave my ability to have a different color hair each month to Sandra Crowder.
- I, Bonnie Suggs, leave my position as a cheerleader to Linda Webb.
- I, Sandra Turner, leave my petit figure to Kay Brady.
- I, Mary Underhill, leave my long hair style to Judy Pulley.
- I, Frances Underwood, leave my ability to go steady to Carolyn Powell Barbour.
- I, Margaret Wall, leave my many good memories of Clayton High School to my brother, Fred.
- I, Mary Ann Waters, leave my position as center forward on the basketball court to Cherrill Mayo.
- I, Loretta Webb, leave my ability to stay out of trouble to Sue Jones.
- I, Jerry Benson, came with nothing, gained nothing, and therefore can leave nothing.
- I, Delma Blinson, leave my ability "parler francais" to Ronald Barbour.
- I, Bobby Capps, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Waters to Ray Church.
- I, Gary Cobb, leave everything, including myself, in the hands of Mary Cooper, to use as only she knows how.
- I, Danny Daly, leave my ability to get along with L. G. Godwin to James Earl Blinson.
- I, Quincy Hocutt, give my "racing chariot" to Charles Clemmons.
- I, Kennon Jackson, leave my passing ability on the football team to John I. Barnes.
- I, Tommy Johnson, leave my ability to take two English courses my Senior year to Betty Parrish.
- I, George Kloster, leave my ability to say the wrong thing at the wrong time to Allen Tew (but I don't think he needs it).
- I, Larry Oldham, leave the editorship of next year's annual to any idiot who will accept it.
- I, Danny Powell, leave nothing as I'll need everything I have and some more too.
- I, Luther W. Price, leave my ability to drive a school bus to C. B. Marcom (he needs it).
- I, Thelton Luther Price, leave my ability to be prompt to Donnie Flowers.
- I, Buddy Ross, leave my safety rules in industrial arts to Ronnie Gower.
- I, Jerry Snead, leave my warm seat next to the radiator in the Senior home room to Robert Benson.
- I, Frank Tew, leave my position as class treasurer to "Brack" Johnson.
- I, Eugene Turner, leave my ability to have four study halls my senior year to E. D. Davis.
- I, Bobby Woodbury, leave my ability to avoid taking English my last year to Roy Self.
- I, Bruce Wood, want to take everything not nailed down with me.
- Last, but not least, I, Peggy Hogg, the Class Testator of 1960-61, leave the job of writing next year's will to some unsuspecting sucker.

Prophecy

As I look into my mystic ball, I see the destiny of the class of '61. But in reality, this class of '61 is no more. The persons that composed it have become too individual for me to prophecy the future of the class as a whole. Instead I see the carefully defined lives of each one, ten years hence...

Through never ending space spins the spaceship of our hero--it's Delma Blinson, pioneer preacher of the universe!

Peggy Hogg, the new P. T. A. president of Clayton School is doing a creditable job. My mystic ball is very clear; I think I see six little redheads clinging to her skirt.

Hollywood, 1971, is still the dazzling city of the stars. The latest one on the horizon is the promising actress, CeCelia Dixon.

Thelton L. Price was not the most punctual person one could know--and still is not. The president is often compared with Jack Kennedy, another notorious latecomer.

Danny Daly was meant for success! His chain of food stores are known from coast to coast as Daly's Daily Grocery.

The cool efficient head of Nancy Avery keeps Preacher Delma's spaceship on its course. In 1971 Nancy was unanimously elected First Lady of the Space Age.

The flaming temper of redheaded John Bagely has cooled a bit. Now one of the famed Boston Celtics, he's a credit to his hometown.

Few can combine business and marriage, but my mystic ball tells me that Sandra Bridges is doing both.

Many wondered who Frank Lloyd Wright's successor would be...and now we know. It seems as if Bobby Capps is setting the trends in architecture.

Not since Florence Nightingale has there been such a well loved nurse as Marie Coates. This year marks another successful one of her career.

The ball is blurred--as if ashamed to reveal the next prophecy. Now I see...the grinning faces of Gary Cobb and Buddy Ross as they leer at me from their cozy home in the freight car.

I see a figure behind a huge desk, barking orders to frightened secretaries. It's Geraldine Davis, president of Davis's Cosmetics, Inc.

Time changes people drastically. In this case time has wiped away Mary Joyce Ellis's fear of making speeches and I see her campaigning for governorship of North Carolina.

Frank Tew, known affectionately to his patients as the "Mad Doctor," has made quite a name for himself.

Mystic balls hate to ALWAYS tell the truth, but I suppose it's necessary. It seems that George Kloster has become a trifle confused in his allegiances and is now a citizen of the USSR.

Quincy Hocutt, famous for his mechanical computer, the Quinki-Bell, has recently received recognition for his invention.

Pro football has recently discovered husky Kennon Jackson. This All-American boy has already revolutionized some of his opponents' faces.

World known travelers Jerry Snead and Tommy Johnson have just returned from a visit to the Orient. These two know the world like the palm of their hand.

Prophecy

Sitting behind her desk and peering over a pile of apples, I see Lacelle Stanley, favorite first grade teacher at Clayton School.

Another successful business woman, Virginia Stephens, is in control of several well-known beauty parlors.

I see a steaming jungle... and Bonnie Suggs! Yes, Bonnie has become world famous by her feats as an explorer of the tropics.

What's this? Margaret Wall in Hawaii! Yet there she is walking down the beach, her grass skirt swaying in the breeze.

Sandra Turner, Frances Underwood, Martha Howell, and Mary Underhill have all joined the WAC's. These military minded gals have done a tremendous service to their country.

Following in the steps of Admiral Byrd is none other than Mary Ann Waters. This youthful explorer has already made tremendous discoveries in the Antarctica.

Another 1961 graduate to succeed at two careers, wifehood and business, is Linda Jones, who blends her careers quite successfully.

Lovely girls crowd my mystic ball--it's the Morgan-Lee Modeling School founded by the two Judys.

Mr. Norvelle Bryan was a permanent fixture of Clayton High--but he is now replaced by Larry Oldham.

The harried face of Nancy Parrish is seen in my mystic ball. She's mother of eight!

The little girl with the big voice, Evelyn Pearce, has rightfully settled in the big ole state of Texas.

American Bandstand is almost a necessary part of the American teenager's life. Now taking Dick Clark's place is none other than our own Glenda Peedin.

Ever heard of Pender's Pickled Peaches? No, guess not. But in 1971 the delicate flavor of Annette Pender's Pickled Peaches will have been sampled by every red-blooded American.

Football coach Danny Powell of CHS is doing very well. His team hasn't lost a game in years.

My mystic ball clouded up as if AFRAID to make this prophecy...ah, now it's clear. No, it's cloudy again, but I got a glimpse. It was Luther Price, toughest sergeant in the U. S. Army!!

Olympic star Ann Pulley has been making all those husky Russian women look gros with her slim figure.

Loretta Webb has performed a tremendous service to humanity. Another Madam Curie, she has found a cure for Cancer!

Perhaps the reason behind President Price's success is that he has such a splendid hostess for the White House--Jackie Smith!

Bruce Wood has found his calling. Now president of the nationally known Girly Girdle Company, he is noted for his superior management of the business.

Woodberry's Funeral Home has pushed Overby right out of business. My mystic ball sees Bobby as the King of Undertakers.

Jerry Benson and Eugene Turner are true southern boys. Farmers at heart, their tobacco farms occupy a large part of Johnston County.

And what does the future hold for yours truly...? I'm a professional fortune teller.

The mystic ball has dimmed. There is no more to be told.

SENIORS OF 1961

Mr. Williams,

I can't begin to tell you how much fun I've had worrying you this year. I really did mean to upset your nerves and cause you to rave, but it was all in fun. My senior year would not have been the same ^{Compliments of} with any other home room teacher. (Thank goodness I didn't have you as a classroom teacher). I want you to know that

NORWICH MILLS

AND

EMPLOYEES

I truly had a wonderful time at Asheville, and

I'm sure the ones on your car had a better time! (you don't have) to tell Mr. Vinson

Thanks for letting me drive your car even if it did almost ruin you for life. I sincerely hope that you have many successful years in teaching and maybe you'll never have another student like me.

Always,
Bobby
